TREASURERS REPORT: (Glen):

As of Feb meeting: $1,239.49 ($1,203.49 checking/$36 cash)

SOUTHERN REGION REPORT: David & Steve attended meeting

$25 club regional fee due at Feb SR meeting

SR currently has 17 clubs and 423 members—lost 2 clubs and 100 members

An at-large club was established for members without a home club (members can fish SQT's while awaiting membership in a home club)

2014 SQT tournament schedules were finalized

CONSERVATION:

MD DNR held its Annual Bass Roundtable meeting Feb1 where the conservation of black bass was discussed. Problems on the Potomac River include increased numbers of Snakeheads, loss of grass in the river, and the pollution created by the debris that got into the water during bridge construction. However, DNR believes there is no big decrease in the black bass population but the fish are just harder to locate.

MEMBERSHIP:

Bill McGucken attended his second meeting and will fish the Mar 29 tournament. Steve submitted club info to be included in the club information section of the Capital .

OLD BUSINESS:

Club banquet March 1 at Hella's starting at 6pm --$30 per person --see you there

NEW BUSINESS:

MBN Bull Roast scheduled for Feb 15th—9 members plan to attend

New Crabtowne Bassmasters hats are available ($15 each) see Glen
