Dan went over the financials for Marshyhope Team Tournament. The club inadvertently paid winners on 21 entries instead of 22 entries. The club has agreed to send the differences in monies that were owed to the winners. Steve will proceed with a letter stating the miscalculation to the winners.

Southern Region Report: Steve mentioned the importance of going to the SR meetings. Twenty-five youth will participate in Jr. SQT this year. The Deep Lake weigh-Station is ready for use. Volunteers are needed for Oct 1st Southern Region Team Tournament.

Volunteers for Sept (Alan), Oct (Dan)

Conservation: Fred mentioned that Water Works Park will reopen on Sept 1st. There's a meeting on Aug 10th to outline the Ranger Program for the park and discussion on training.

Membership: The club will look for another member to fill up a non-boater spot. Charlie and Kevin may know someone that would like to join Crabtowne. Roger Jr has been missing club events and has not contacted any member to discuss his membership status. The club has discussed possible next steps regarding his membership. Jim Pitt will contact Roger Jr to discuss his membership intentions.

Old Business: None

Safety: None

New Business: Steve has reminded club members to bring their shirts to meeting if they want club logo embroidery on it. Charlie has brought embroidery examples from his previous club to share with Crabtowne members. Franco will contact a local company that will convert embroidery image to computer image file so that a club logo can be printed on shirts instead doing embroidery.

Fishing Discussion: None

Tournament: Marshyhope Team Tournament went smoothly on July 30th. Glen thanked Charlie for his assistance on helping out at the Marshyhope. Steve mentioned to club members that they should look into getting rooms for Lake Anna tournament. Rooms are already filled at Highpoint Marina per Charlie. The club will not fish at Trap Pond this year due to low water level. The club has changed the upcoming tournament location to the Potomac for Aug 27th. The club will launch at Ft. Washington and rally from Collington Plaza @ 4:30 a.m.

The pairings for Potomac on Aug 27th

Boater	Non Boater
Jim	John
Glen	Joe
Steve	Fred
Roger Sr	Franco
Denis	Kevin
